

FURLONG.

Meet your demon.

What happens when a depressed housecat, undergoing therapy for his homicidal fantasies, wakes to find his owner dead and himself the prime suspect?

FURLONG.

...a lonely bourgeoisie housecat who works as a famous portrait artist to help avoid boredom.

Filled with overwhelming anxiety and depression, and subsequent fantasies about killing random strangers, he enrolls in therapy sessions with Zenyara, a part-time therapist and budding porn director, to help him work through his fantasies and prove to himself that he is not crazy.

After Zenyara gets Furlong to open up about his deepest fantasy (killing his owner), Furlong returns home and wakes the next morning to find his owner murdered -- and himself as the prime suspect.

He takes to the streets as a wanted fugitive and is thrown into a world where he must live alongside the commoners he despises, cope with his guilt and growing mental issues, and for the first time in his life -- fight to survive.

He realizes Zenyara is only hope, but discovers she is now on the run herself; from a sleazy and manipulative porn financier.

Through a series of role-play therapy sessions, fantasy explorations, and journeys back and forth into childhood and real-life experience, Furlong helps Zenyara confront her own issues and discovers that many of his own issues resolved in the process.
